

Power units

In many occasions socket feeding points are used in combination with cable reels for the electrical feeding of mobile equipment.

These feeding points are usually installed under the ground; provided with a casing used as a cover, enabling road traffic.

In those cases that the underground installation it's not possible, we provide a fully customized design to adequate the feeding point to the main activity of the customers warehouse.

Available in various configurations

Components and accessories: We supply all the spare parts of our feeding points in order to prolong and optimize their lifetime.

Principal consumers: Wall mounted, floor mounted or located in trenches below floor level they are mainly used in ports, shipyards, manufacturers for material handling equipment, erection firms for electric materials, electric material storage companies, electric outfits in general stores in general iron and steel mills mining, fertilizers and cement plants.

Auxema-Stemmann Española, S.A. Apartado 34, 48100 Mungia; Bizkaia (Spain)
tel. (+34) 946 740 362 / fax. +(34) 946 744 859